

THE CANADA-U.S. FULBRIGHT-MIGRATION POLICY INSTITUTE AWARD

The Canada-U.S.
Fulbright-
Migration Policy Institute Award offers Canadian students and junior professionals a unique opportunity to explore contemporary migration policy
issues at one of the leading think-tanks on migration in the United States.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Undergraduate degree and excellent academic performance
- Interest and research experience in international migration
- Canadian citizen
- Proficiency in English

FIELDS OF STUDY

- Any field pertaining to contemporary migration policy

BENEFITS

- US$15,000 for one academic year (9 months) and health insurance
- Affiliation with the Migration Policy Institute in Washington, D.C. (includes work space, phone and e-mail access, access to research resources)

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Deadline: January 5th, 2006 for grants to be taken up in September of the same calendar year (2006)
- Application available at www.fulbright.ca. Please use the Canada-US Fulbright Program application form for graduate students and junior professionals. List the Migration Policy Institute as your preferred affiliation.
- A developed research plan should be included in the project statement.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Michelle Emond
(613) 688-5513
memond@fulbright.ca

www.fulbright.ca

SPECIAL COMPETITION

DEADLINE:

JANUARY 5TH, 2006

